Dear HR Colleague:

In another year of tight fiscal budgets and the continued need for good stewardship of training budgets, we encourage you to consider a prudent investment – joining your local Oregon IPMA-HR chapter!

Economic Stimulus Offer

Be a part of our referral team and encourage a colleague to join the Chapter with you! If they place your name on the referral line on the application, your name will be placed in a drawing at our January 14th, 2010 seminar for a chance at one of four $25 gift certificates.

Our theme for this year is Tools for Tough Times.

Upcoming Programs:

- January 14, 2010, breakfast seminar – Ethics and Social Networking: How are Ethics Impacted by the Latest Technology – Barb Bloom
- March 4, 2010 – Legal and Legislative Update – Lisa Umscheid
- April 8, 2010 – Managing in Tough Times: Organizational Development on a Tight Budget and Managing Those Who are Left, breakfast seminar – Wayne Scott
- June 17, 2010 –Dispute Resolution in the Workplace – Mike Neimeyer

Benefits to being a local Oregon IPMA-HR Chapter member are:

- Discounts on IPMA-HR Events
- Tuition and Profession Development Scholarships
- Unmatched Networking with Other Public Sector HR Professionals.
- Professional Resources

Additional benefits:

As a chapter affiliated member of national IPMA-HR, you also receive these benefits:

- Weekly HR Bulletin delivered via email
- Member rate for all IPMA-HR professional development activities, IPMA-HR Western Region Conference and National Conferences, HR Competency Training Program, and monthly training webinar

We look forward to you joining our local chapter and sharing in our continued success and commitment to the Oregon Human Resource profession in the public sector!
