

- Sara Moye, SPHR, is currently serving as the Human Resources Director for Josephine County. She has approximately 10 years in the field of Human Resources, in both private and public sectors. Specialty areas include compensation administration and labor relations. Sara also has a background in conflict resolution and mediation. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Southern Oregon University and began her career working for a private non-profit with limited resources, therefore has extensive experience managing human resources during difficult financial times. The recent years with Josephine County have resulted in a very broad base of experience in labor and employment law. Sara currently serves as a board member for the Rogue Valley Public Service Academy, formed to provide local, low-cost public sector related trainings to supervisors and management.
