

The Permission Principle: Overcoming Invisible Boundaries

Presenter: Sari de la Motte, CEO, Nonverbal Solutions

Thursday, September 17, 2009

Breakfast Seminar

Please note location and time change from usual location**

SEMINAR DESCRIPTION

How aware are you of the Permission Principle? Do you sabotage your own efforts by violating unspoken boundaries? If we don't know what nonverbal cues to look for, we inadvertently cross the invisible line of permission. This costs us credibility, effectiveness, and eventually long-term success.

Get ready to view effective communication in a whole new light. The Permission Principle applies to presentation skills, business and personal relationships, negotiations and more. Understanding the Permission Principle is the key to success in both the professional and personal realm.

Learn:

- How to identify the invisible boundaries of individuals and groups
- How nonverbal communication assists in reading and influencing permission levels
- Simple ways to increase permission and effectiveness

Understanding nonverbal communication and how it helps navigate the area of permission is the key to increased influence in the educational, corporate, and personal realm.

This is one that you will want the supervisors in your organization to also attend. Sari has been receiving rave reviews from HR professionals and supervisors as offering the "best communication workshop ever."

Seminar Date/Time: 7:30 a.m. check in and breakfast / 8 – 9:30 a.m. Presentation

Registration Deadline: Friday, September 11, 2009

Location: Holiday Inn – Wilsonville - 25425 SW 95th Avenue, Wilsonville

Cost: $20.00 per member paid in advance / $25 per non-member (breakfast included) Please make checks payable to: IPMA Oregon Chapter. No refunds after Friday September 11, 2009– please call 503-991-3383 to cancel, or e-mail IPMAOregon@msn.com by 5 p.m. on Friday, September 11, 2009.

Registration: You may register either by e-mail or by submitting the registration form attached.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Sari de la Motte, CEO and founder of Nonverbal Solutions, engages her audience by sharing the power of nonverbal communication with relevant examples, practical applications and humor. Sari helps individuals and organizations discover how tuning into our nonverbals can make a difference in how we are perceived. She has trained extensively with an internationally recognized authority in nonverbal communication and leads workshops based in nonverbal communication strategies throughout the United States. Sari also provides one-on-one coaching to individuals who are seeking to expand influence in the workplace. In addition to her consulting work Sari has taught on the faculty of Pacific University and Portland State University.

IPMA SEMINAR REGISTRATION: The Permission Principle: Overcoming Invisible Boundaries Thursday, September 17, 2009

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Phone:

E-Mail Address:

You may register by e-mail to: ipmaoregon@msn.com or by completing the information above and mailing along with payment to:

IPMA –HR Oregon Chapter
PO Box 3801
Salem, OR 97302

Please make checks payable to:

IPMA Oregon Chapter
$20 per member / $25 per non-member

*IPMA Oregon Chapter annual membership is $60 per year if you are not a member IPMA-HR National, $35 if you are a member of the National Chapter. Please contact us for agency membership rates.

IPMA Oregon Chapter

For additional information on IPMA Oregon chapter visit our website at www.ipmaoregon.org or e-mail ipmaoregon@msn.com